

Fireside Chat

Alta Historical Society

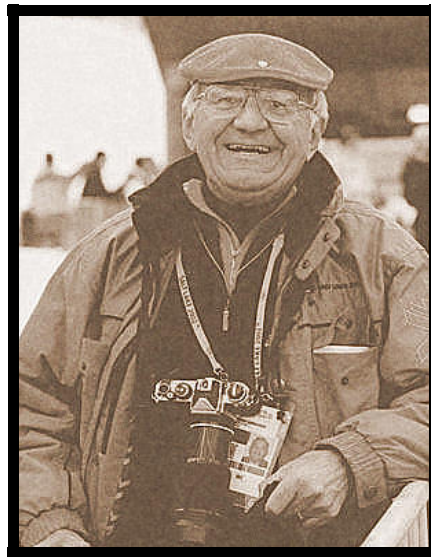

“Poignant Reminiscences of a Long-time Ski Writer.”

Presentation by Mike Korologos

Tuesday, January 26th * REI, 3300 South, Salt Lake City* 7:00 PM

Thursday, January 28th Snowpine Lodge, Alta 4:30 PM

Presentation by long time ski writer and historian Mike Korologos, 2009 Inductee to the Intermountain Ski Hall of Fame, Alf Engen Ski Museum Foundation

Mike will share stories and anecdotes from his extraordinary experiences as a ski writer of some 50 years. His experience includes being Public Information Director for the Salt Lake Bid and later Organizing Committees for the Olympic Winter Games of 2002 (SLOC). He was regional correspondent for “Skiing Magazine” for 30 years and has had ski and travel articles about the Intermountain West appear in publications worldwide. He is former chair and current executive committee member of the University of Utah Marriott Library’s Ski Archives and a charter board member of the Alf Engen Ski Museum Foundation. In 1992 Mike was named “Ski Journalist of the Year” by Ski Utah and in 2003 he received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the International Ski History Association in recognition of his numerous outstanding contributions to ski history.

The Fireside Chats at REI are presented with:

Alf Engen Ski Museum Foundation

The Fireside Chats are supported by:

