

Odyssey House, Inc-Utah
Internet Privacy Policy

Protecting your privacy is important to us. We hope the following statement will help you understand how Odyssey House, Inc-Utah collects, uses and safeguards the personal information you provide to us on our site.

Odyssey House, Inc-Utah collects personal information from you solely from information you supply voluntarily on the online forms found on the website and from email communication initiated by you. Any personal information collected through these forms, including the contact form, donation link, online referral form, and email correspondence, is kept strictly confidential within a secure database. We will never sell or rent your information. We do not use “cookies” for collecting consumer information.

Site statistics are collected without tracking personal identifying information, such as IP addresses. Our server collects non-personal information, such as the number of overall visits to the site and the average time spent on the site, to improve site performance only.

At times, links on Odyssey House, Inc-Utah’s website will link to other websites on the internet, such as with news articles. Content and privacy policies are the responsibility of their respective owners.

If you request information or sign up to be on our mailing list and decide to change your mind, you can always opt out of this contact simply by contacting us with your request. If you have any further questions about our privacy policy, website security, or how we use your information, you can use the same contact point.
